

EKAW 2006 – 15th International Conference on Knowledge Engineering and Knowledge Management

Managing Knowledge in a World of Networks

October 2 – 6, 2006
Podebrady (near Prague)
Czech Republic

The conference is concerned with all aspects of eliciting, acquiring, modeling, managing and exploiting knowledge, and the role of these aspects in the construction of knowledge-intensive systems and services.

EKAW 2006 Key Areas

- A) Ontologies and the Semantic Web
- B) Semantics for Grid and Web Services
- C) Knowledge and Social Networks
- D) Knowledge Management
- E) Knowledge Acquisition and Modeling

EKAW 2006 Program

- Invited Talks
- Presentations of Research Papers
- Industrial Track
- Tutorials
- Workshops
- Demonstrations
- Posters

Proceedings will be published by Springer Verlag in the LNCS series.

Conference Co-chairs

Steffen Staab, University of Koblenz-Landau, Germany
Vojtech Svatek, University of Economics, Prague, Czech Republic joint contact: ekaw06chair@uni-koblenz.de

Workshop and Tutorial Chair

Heiner Stuckenschmidt, University of Mannheim, Germany

Poster Chair

Helena Sofia Pinto, Technical University of Lisbon, Portugal

Demo Chair

Martin Labsky, University of Economics, Prague, Czech Republic

Local Arrangements

Andrea Kutnarova, Action M Agency, andrea@action-m.com

Important Deadlines

April 1, 2006

- Workshop and tutorial proposals

April 12, 2006

- Research abstract submissions
- Industrial abstract submissions

April 19, 2006

- Research paper submissions
- Industrial track papers submissions

June 15, 2006

- Poster submissions
- Demo paper submissions

August 2, 2006

- Early registration

For submission info and more detailed time schedule, please observe the conference website. <http://ekaw.vse.cz>

Conference Location

Hotel Bellevue – Tlapak
Podebrady Czech Republic
<http://www.bellevue.cz/en>

The Bellevue hotel has an ideal position in the heart of Podebrady. It is located in the middle of the bath park, near the known flower clock. The hotel provides comfort, privacy and perfect services.

Podebrady Town

<http://www.mesto-podebrady.cz>

Podebrady is a calm town situated 50 km to the east of Prague, easily reachable by car, by bus or by train in one hour. The town is famous for its spas and its royal descendent, King George of Podebrady.

Podebrady was founded in 1224 near an important crossing on the Elbe river. As early as the 17th century a small spa was founded in Podebrady. The springs there were considered the most medicinal in the region with their high iron content. In the year 1905, an exceptionally strong spring with healing mineral water has been discovered in the courtyard of the Podebrady castle. Since 1908, heart, circulation and blood vessel diseases have been treated in the carbon bath with iron-containing water.

The EKAW 2006 Welcome Party will take place at the Podebrady castle, the birthplace of King George.